DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments filed 7/21/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

I. Rejection of claims 1-29 under 35 USC 103(a) as being obvious over Brock will be maintained in light of amendment filed 7/21/03 for reasons on record as well as reasons as follows.

Applicant argues that the prior art does not teach or suggest a hair care product comprising both ethanol and water having at least 40% spray droplets with particle size of at least 100 microns. Applicant discusses in arguments that smaller spray particles do not sufficiently penetrate throughout the entire depth of the carrier. Applicant discusses that the hair shine agent of the present invention comprising both water and ethanol in the form of a spray product with larger particle size enhances shine, improves clean hair feel, increases scalp refreshment, and reduces scalp drying.

Examiner argues that Brock suggests the combination of carriers such as water and ethanol. See paper number 13. Examiner argues that Applicant makes statements to unexpected results (improve hair feel, reduce scalp drying) of instant composition having 40% spray droplets with particle size of at least 100 microns. However, Applicant does not provide data supporting these statements.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
